Report:

Met A at school. She seemed very cheerful and was telling me all about her day. She was especially proud of her art work! We got the bus into the city centre. A listened to the radio on the way with her new headphones. When in town, A wanted to go straight to her favourite shop – Waterstones. I suggested we go to Boots first as I know she loves to smell all the perfumes! We headed to Waterstones afterwards. On the way A told me about her new friend at school and how she was really excited as she had been invited to stay at her house. We talked about this and what she might do there. A enjoyed looking at all the books in Waterstones. We went upstairs in the café for a drink and cake! We popped into the shoe shop to look at all the different shoes. After this we went to feed the squirrels by the river and caught the bus home. It was a really enjoyable session.

Please share here if you have a highlight/ quote from the session!:

A being so excited about her sleepover. She was telling me all about how lovely her new friend is and that she can't wait for me to meet her!
